Tanja Simma

Clown • Comedian

Tanja Simma was educated at the University for music and acting in Vienna and at the "École de Mime et Clown" in France.

She was the first female Austrian artist to perform in CIRQUE DU SOLEIL and was part of the first production of PALAZZO in Vienna.

She's the engine behind the Comicompany, co-founder of "Theater Olé" - the first clown theater in Vienna, and one of the 'pillars' in the team of the "Red Noses Clowndoctors".

Besides that she was also one of the first female clowns in Austria and thus she can really call herself a 'pioneer of clowning'.

She celebrated 25 years on stage with the world première of her first Solo Show at the international women's clown festival "clownin 2012" in Vienna and has been touring ever since through numerous countries in Europe, Central and South America.

"The Substitute" was directed by 'King of Fools' JANGO EDWARDS, who keeps saying:

"Women are the best Clowns in the World"
